

Vital Signs® 2010 GIVING GUIDE

Community means so many things to so many people. And the world to us.

Publishing date October 13th in Globe Life. Booking deadline: September 29. Material deadline: October 6.

Does community mean the world to you and your organization too? If so, don't miss this opportunity to join Community Foundations of Canada in the launch of the Vital Signs 2010 Giving Guide.

Canada's Vital Signs is an annual check-up conducted by community foundations across Canada to measure the vitality of our communities and our country.

Be part of an essential resource for individuals and organizations who want to make their communities a better place to live, work and play.

Connect with donors and community leaders

Put your company at the heart of a key resource for donors as they make important decisions during the 'Giving Season.'

The Vital Signs Giving Guide provides

Canadians with a snapshot of local success stories from across the country and links them to national and local statistics, expert commentary, and plenty of ideas for giving during the busy fall financial season.

Special rates and benefits

If your business is committed to making a difference in Canadian communities take advantage of special advertising rates now to ensure you are part of the Vital Signs 2010 Giving Guide. Advertising space is limited, so act now. Book early and receive additional exposure on the Vital Signs Canada website (www.vitalsignscanada.ca) which receives thousands of visits from across Canada and around the world every month.

Community Foundations of Canada represents the 170+ local foundations created by, and for, communities from coast to coast. Community vitality has been our purpose, promise, and passion since 1921, when we started connecting donors to community needs.

Vital Signs 2010. Community foundations taking the pulse of Canadian communities.
