- ⑤ Fill out the delivery form, making sure to include all important information.

- File Description: in this field, the following information should be listed:
 - Company name of who the ad is for (such as Bell, IBM...), and
 - whether the ad is Colour or Black and White.
 - Also listed in this field should be any key words or slogans in the ad that will help production to identify the correct file.
- Special Instructions: in this field, the following information should be listed:
 - File type, such as PDF or EPS and so on.
 - Any further instructions for the Preflight department that you want conveyed.

- ⑥ When the form is filled out and the filename has been entered, select Upload to upload the file to The Globe and Mail.

When the file is uploading to The Globe and Mail, a window will appear showing the file size, how much of the file has been transferred, and the percentage complete.

- ⑦ Once the file has been uploaded, the screen will go back to your now updated customer profile page.

This page will now list under Material Delivered, the materials that have been uploaded. All information that was filled out in the "Deliver Materials" page will also be listed. An example of this is shown below.

This window will update everytime that another ad has been delivered, allowing you to track what has been sent and when.
